

PFW SS18

PARIS First Glance - SPRING/SUMMER 2018

TOBACCO HUES

Chloé

Stella McCartney

Jacquemus

Ellery

PFW SS18

Paris designers showed head to toe looks comprised of warm and rich tobacco browns - a key neutral shade for SS18

PARIS First Glance - SPRING/SUMMER 2018

DARK PATENT

Aalto

Ellery

Acne

Sonia Rykiel

PFW SS18

Glossy patent garments opted for darker tones in slick black outerwear pieces and tailoring, sometimes with hints of colour.

PARIS First Glance - SPRING/SUMMER 2018

PISTACHIO GREEN

Acne

Sonia Rykiel

Valentino

John Galliano

PFW SS18

The bright fresh greens we saw in SS17/AW17 have evolved into this pretty pastel pistachio shade for the upcoming season ahead.

SLITS AND SLICES

Maison Margiela

Y/Project

Christian Dior

Loewe

PFW SS18

Subtle or statement, keyholes and cut outs are a key detail that have been doing the rounds on catwalks for Spring/Summer 2018.

NEW FRINGE

Altuzarra

Céline

Loewe

Jacquemus

PFW SS18

Fringing was everywhere on the SS18 Paris catwalks in a wide variation of ways: Beaded, feathered, DIY shredded and macrame

YELLOW CHECK

Miu Miu

Sacai

Chanel

Aalto

PFW SS18

A key colour and print for SS18, these two trends merge into one, with designers showing checked looks with a touch of yellow.

ABSTRACT POLO

Koché

Stella McCartney

Y/Project

Lacoste

PFW SS18

Deconstructed sports polos were a prominent feature on the catwalks, with contrast white rugby shirt style necklines as a key detail.