DISCO FEVER INSPIRED BY

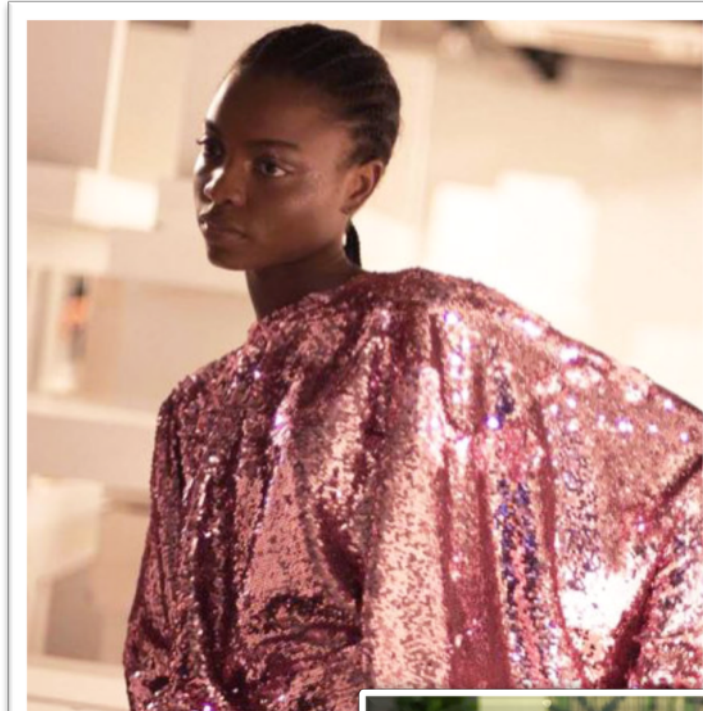

We are seeing the 70's glamorous trend more and more on the SS19 catwalks coming from London. Designers take inspiration from the party looks of style icons like Bianca Jagger and Elizabeth Taylor. And with the Studio 54 documentary out, this glam theme feels right for any time of the year.

DISCO FEVER THE LOOK

COLOURED METALLICS

The Disco Fever trend shows jumpsuits, tops and bodysuits in a luminous colour palette. We are seeing iridescent and shimmering materials, as well as coloured sequins and all-over prints.

DISCO FEVER THE LOOK

SILVER TONES

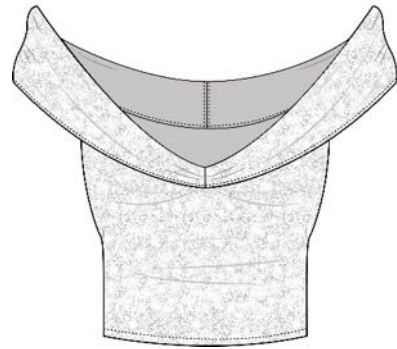

Dresses with an asymmetric form, metallic yarns and sparkly embellishments in a range of silver tones are also key to this trend. Making this a trend for any time of the year, high summer through to Party season!
